COMPILER'S NOTE.

THE study of Wills for genealogical and biographical purposes is becoming more and more general. Wills are of the deepest human interest. Edgar Vine Hall, in his Romance of Wills and Testaments, has well said:

> "In Wills, human nature is most vividly and variously displayed; in Wills the dead speak, and in a manner live again. The poor and the rich, men learned and men illiterate, all alike have made interesting Wills. In some cases humour and pathos are more unconscious, in others opportunity for effect is greater; but in wills of every class, and of every age or form, there is much worthy of remark. Historically they are invaluable records. In them are reflected all social, political, and religious revolutions. By them the history of families or places is preserved and illuminated. As long ago as the sixteenth century John Stow realised their value, and often referred to them in his Survey of London. No local record to-day would be complete without the wills of its worthies."

Among English Wills, not the least interesting and valuable are the early Wills relating to the County of Suffolk, as is witnessed by Wills and Inventories from the Register of the Commissary of Bury St. Edmunds and the Archdeaconry of Sudbury,[1] by the late Samuel Tymms, F.S.A., first Secretary of the Suffolk Institute of Archæology, and the later Wills printed in Muskett's Suffolk Manorial Families, Exeter, 1894-1908, in The Register of English Monumental Inscriptions, and in the East Anglian Miscellany.

To bring to the would-be Student of Suffolk Wills in a compact, handy and useful form, a list (of easy reference) of all Wills relating to that County proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury is the purpose of this Calendar.

In it, under Parishes and Places alphabetically arranged, I have given every Will in chronological order, and have added thereto an Index of Testators. I venture to hope that it will thus deserve a place in the Reference Library by the side of, and form an almost indispensable companion to, the invaluable and sumptuously printed Ipswich Wills from the justly famed Private Press of Mr. F. A. Crisp, F.S.A., and the admirably compiled Calendar of Wills at Bury St. Edmunds,[1] recently published by the Suffolk Institute of Archæology.

In compiling the Calendar I have chiefly availed myself of the Index of the British Record Society (4 vols.), now somewhat rare and costly to acquire.

Should the book meet with acceptance, and the publishers at least secure reimbursement, I shall feel encouraged to complete a similar list from 1604 to 1800, some seventy years of which are already in MS.

In conclusion, I desire gratefully to acknowledge the generous sympathy of Mr. H. W. B. Wayman, at whose expense the Calendar has been prepared, and my indebtedness to Mr. T. W. Oswald-Hicks, the Hon. Secretary of the English Monumental Inscriptions Society and Editor of its Register, for kindly consenting to arrange the work for, and guiding it through, the press.

C. W. S. RANDALL CLOKE.
